WALES vs ENGLAND

2023 WOMEN'S SIX NATIONS

OPTA FACTS

- England have won 11 of their last 12 TikTok Women's Six Nations matches against Wales (L1) including each of their last six and have scored over 50 points in each of their last five, preventing Wales from scoring a single point in two of those matches.
- Wales have won twice against England in the TikTok Women's Six Nations with both of those victories coming on home soil, most recently a 13-0 win in 2015 – one of just two occasions that England have been kept scoreless in the Championship (also v Ireland in 2013) – as well as a 16-15 victory in 2009 when Wales went on to secure the Triple Crown.
- England have won each of their last 21 games in the TikTok Women's Six Nations, the longest such run of any side in the history of the Championship, with six of their last seven victories having come by margins of over 50 points.
- Since the beginning of 2016, England have won 15 of their 17 away matches in the TikTok Women's Six Nations (L2), with their only defeats in that run both coming in France; the Red Roses have won their last nine away games and one more victory would equal the record for most consecutive away wins in the Championship, set by England themselves when they won 10 in a row between 2005 and 2008.
- Wales beat Ireland in their most recent home game (31-5), their biggest victory on home soil in the Championship since 2003 (44-0 v Spain); Wales now have the opportunity to win back-to-back home games in the TikTok Women's Six Nations for the first time since 2016 (v Scotland and France).
- England (355) and Wales (274) rank first and second respectively for carries made in the TikTok Women's Six Nations this year, while they also have the best gainline success rates this campaign (England - 68%, Wales - 67%).
- Only France (78) have gained more metres from mauls than Wales (65) in this year's TikTok Women's Six Nations, while England have scored twice as many maul tries as every other team in the Championship combined (6 – Wales - 2, Scotland - 1, France, Ireland and Italy - 0).
- England have averaged a greater share of possession (61%) and territory (59%) than any other side in this year's TikTok Women's Six Nations, with Wales ranking second in both categories so far in this year's Championship (55% possession, 56% territory).
- Welsh duo Beth Lewis (5) and Georgia Evans (4) are two of just three players to have made over three dominant tackles in this year's TikTok Women's Six Nations, while only Neve Jones (35) has made more tackles without missing any than Wales' Alex Callender (30).
- Only three players have scored 4+ tries in this year's TikTok Women's Six Nations, all of whom play for England; Marlie Packer (5), Abigail Dow (4) and Claudia MacDonald (4) – Packer (43) and Dow (30) are also the only two players to have made 30+ carries in the Championship this year, with Welsh duo Sisilia Tuipulotu and Georgia Evans ranking joint third for carries (29 each).
