FRANCE U20 vs ENGLAND U20

2024 U20 SIX NATIONS

OPTA FACTS

- France have won their last two U20 Six Nations matches against England, the first time they've managed consecutive wins against them in the Championship, having lost 10 of their initial 14 matches (W4).
- France have won four of their last six home games against England in the U20 Six Nations, (L2) including their most recent such clash in 2022 (26-22).
- France have only played one previous U20 Six Nations fixture at Stade de Hameau in Pau, beating Scotland 42-27 there back in 2019, scoring six tries in the match including a brace from Jordan Joseph.
- France have lost both of their home games in the 2024 U20 Six Nations so far (v Ireland and Italy), the first time they've ever lost more than one home game in an edition of the Championship, the last time they lost three matches overall in an edition was back in 2013.
- England have won each of their two away games in this year's U20 Six Nations (v Italy and Scotland), scoring 2+ tries in each half of those matches – a bonus-point win against France would secure England's first U20 title since 2021.
- France are the only side to have been successful from 80%+ of their place-kick attempts in this year's U20 Six Nations (86%, 18/21) and were successful from all seven of their penalty/conversion attempts against Wales in the most recent round of fixtures.
- France have beaten more defenders (29) and made more line breaks (7.8) per game than any other team in the 2024 U20 Six Nations and also have the highest tackle evasion (28%) and carry dominance (55%) rates of any side this year, while England have crossed the gainline from a greater share of their carries than any other nation (58%).
- England (87%) and France (90%) have the two highest tackle success rates of any sides in the 2024 U20 Six Nations – France missed just seven tackles during their most recent match against Wales, the fewest of any team in a single game in this year's Championship.
- England's Henry Pollock has made the most carries of any player in the 2024 U20 Six Nations (45), while France's Xan Mousques has gained more metres from his carries than any other player in this year's Championship (265).
- England's Finn Carnduff (71%) and France's Zinedine Aouad (65%) have crossed the gainline from a greater percentage of their carries than any other forwards in this year's U20 Six Nations (min.20 carries) – Carnduff is also the only player to have claimed 30+ lineout takes in the Championship (34).
