IRELAND vs WALES

2024 GUINNESS WOMEN'S SIX NATIONS

OPTA FACTS

- Wales have won each of their last two Guinness Women's Six Nations matches against Ireland, as many wins as in their previous 12 meetings since 2010 combined (L10) – Wales' most recent win against Ireland in the Championship came by a margin of 26 points (31-5 last year), their largest win against Ireland this century.
- Ireland have lost each of their last seven Guinness Women's Six Nations matches, their longest losing run in the championship since 2006-2007 (also 7), however, their most recent defeat came by a margin of just six points (21-27 v Italy), their narrowest loss in that period.
- Ireland have lost each of their last three Guinness Women's Six Nations home games after losing just two in eight previously (W6) – Ireland haven't recorded four straight home defeats in the Championship since Italy joined the Championship in 2007.
- Wales have won just one of their last five Guinness Women's Six Nations matches (L4) since winning their first two of the 2023 Championship – Wales have lost each of their last six Round 3 fixtures in the Championship.
- Wales have alternated between wins and losses across their last seven Guinness Women's Six Nations away games, winning three and losing four during that period – each of Wales' last three away games in the Championship have been decided by margins of 25+ points.
- Wales have stolen or otherwise won possession from 28% of their opponents' lineouts in the 2024 Guinness Women's Six Nations, the second highest such rate of any team in the Championship (France, 31%), while Ireland have won a lesser percentage of their own lineouts than any other side (63%).
- Ireland have completed 68% of their attacking rucks in under three seconds during this year's Guinness Women's Six Nations, the highest such rate of any team, while Wales have retained possession from a greater share of their attacking rucks than any other side (96.6%).
- Ireland are the only team to have been successful from 100% of their place-kicks in this year's Guinness Women's Six Nations (5/5), while Wales have the second highest success rate from the tee of any side in the Championship (83%, 5/6).
- No player has completed more tackles in the 2024 Guinness Women's Six Nations than Ireland's Neve Jones, who is yet to miss from any of her 35 tackle attempts – teammate Linda Djougang has made twice as many dominant tackles as any other player this year (10).
- Wales' Alex Callender is one of four players to have a joint-high three jackal turnovers in this year's Guinness Women's Six Nations, alongside Ireland's Aoife Wafer (also Kelsey Clifford and Hannah Botterman), while teammate Georgia Evans has hit 17 defensive rucks, the joint-second most of any player in the Championship.
